

Pentecostal Theological Institute of Bucharest and
Pentecostal Theological Seminary in Cleveland, TN, USA

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Bucharest, October 7, 2016

In keeping with the shared institutional vision between Institutul Teologic Penticostal din București (Romania) and Pentecostal Theological Seminary (USA), the following collaborative agreements represent a mutual commitment to help support one another in providing accredited theological education rooted in the Holiness-Pentecostal faith values of Christian tradition.

Collaborative Agreements

1. Institutul Teologic Penticostal (hereafter ITPB) and Pentecostal Theological Seminary (hereafter, PTS) will engage in a mutual effort to help support accredited theological education of ITPB in Romania.
2. PTS will strategically consider providing its faculty resources to help teach in the Master's and undergraduate programs of ITPB insofar as such action is fiscally feasible and appropriate.
3. Whenever fiscally feasible, PTS will provide scholarship to select ITPB faculty and/or students to study at PTS. The ITPB administration will be responsible for selecting the said ITPB faculty and/or students and inform the PTS administration of their request, with the list of scholarship beneficiaries, one year prior to the start of their study at PTS.
4. If and whenever applicable, PTS will consider ITPB as a possible internship site for PTS students, e.g. teaching in the undergraduate programs of ITPB, mission-related internship at local congregations in Romania.
5. If and whenever possible, PTS will consider working with ITPB in helping increase the ITPB's library resources.
6. ITPB and PTS will strategically consider convening academic conferences, either at ITPB or PTS, with a view toward publishing the papers presented at each conference.
7. PTS and ITPB will regularly review and assess the progress of the above collaborative agreements and may initiate alteration to any of the above collaborative agreements by revision, deletion and/or addition.
